Moſt Dread Sovereign,

After our moſt hearty Thanks given unto Almighty God for his great Bleſſing beſtowed upon Your Majeſty's and Your Allies Arms, in the Glorious Victories obtained under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Your Majeſty's Captain-General, and other the Confederate Generals in Conjunction with him, over the French and Bavarians; whereby Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Prudence is not only ſignalized to all the World, but likewiſe Your Tender Care for the Good of Mankind in general, is manifeſted, in Your Pious Undertakings to defend and reſcue the Empire and all Europe from the Exorbitant and Tyrannical Power of the French King.

In all Humility we beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty for this happy Succeſs; by which all the World may ſee, that this great Potentate is not Invincible, but that, by Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Conduct, and the Juſtice of Your Cauſe, with the Aſſiſtance of the Almighty Power, by whom Kings and Queens Reign, Your Majeſty may be the happy Inſtrument to reduce the Power of France to ſuch a Condition, that it may not be able to hurt its Neighbours.

The Conſideration whereof, together with Your Majeſty's Gracious Intentions and Deſires, oftentimes declared from the Throne, for the Uniting of Your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects in Love and Charity with one another, as alſo Your Majeſty's Moderation towards our Diſſenting Brethren; have cauſed the Enjoyment of many Comfortable Thoughts in all Your good Subjects, in the Proſpect of a Glorious Flouriſhing of the Chriſtian Religion in theſe Your Majeſty's Dominions. And that Your Majeſty's Pious Endeavours may be bleſs'd with a ſuitable Succeſs to ſo Righteous an Undertaking, we will be ready at all times to aſſiſt Your Majeſty to the utmoſt of our Power; and ſhall always pray to God Almighty for a Bleſſing upon Your Endeavours: And that it may pleaſe him to bleſs us with Your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us, is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

MADAM,

WE Your Majeſty's faithful and dutiful Subjects, humbly deſire Leave (amongſt others) to take this Opportunity of approaching Your Sacred Perſon, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Great and Glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms both by Land and Sea, under the wiſe and prudent Conduct, Courage, and Bravery, of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke.

We are very ſenſibly affected with theſe great and happy Succeſſes, which (under the Bleſſing of God) are chiefly owing to Your Majeſty's wiſe and happy Adminiſtration and Government, and which we hope are an Earneſt from Heaven to Your Majeſty of attaining thoſe juſt Ends and Deſigns for which Your Majeſty engaged in this neceſſary War.

That Heaven (Moſt Gracious Sovereign) may ſtill continue to ſhower down ſuch Bleſſings as theſe upon You; that an uninterrupted Succeſs may crown all Your Undertakings; and that You may long continue ſo to Reign over us; ſhall be the fervent Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter, with the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Chicheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Chicheſter.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter, with the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Chicheſter.

May it pleaſe Your Sacred Majeſty,

THE late ſignal Victory, which, through the wonderful Providence of Almighty God, was obtained at Hochſtet, by the Arms of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, and by the Conduct and Courage of that great Commander the Duke of Marlborough; hath induced us, amongſt the reſt of Your faithful and obedient Subjects, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon ſo glorious and happy an Occaſion.

May

May God (to whom Power belongs, and that giveth Victory to Princes) prosper Your Majesty's Councils and Designs, for maintaining the Liberty of Europe, the Safety, Honour, and Welfare, of Your own Dominions, and the Protestant Religion both at Home and Abroad.

And may we of these Nations be so firmly united in the same Duty, Interest, and Affection, that the Designs and Expectations of the Common Enemy (to which our Divisions give too much Life and Encouragement) may be effectually disappointed and prevented.

As for our parts, we crave Leave most humbly to assure Your Majesty, That we, in our several Stations, and as much as in us lies, will promote the Peace and Tranquillity of Your Majesty's happy Government, and the lasting Union of the Established Church, to which it is our Honour to belong.

Nor shall we ever cease to offer up our earnest and incessant Prayers to Almighty God, That Your Sacred Majesty may long Reign over us, a Support to Your Allies, a Terrour to Your Enemies, a Guardian to our Church, and a Blessing to Your People.

The following Address from the Borough of Stratford upon Avon was presented to Her Majesty by Hugh Clopton Esq; Steward of the said Borough, accompanied by the Knights of the Shire, and several other Gentlemen of the County of Warwick; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, the Right Honourable Lord High Steward, Recorder, Steward, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, of Your Majesty's ancient Borough and loyal Corporation of Stratford upon Avon in the County of Warwick.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit us, among Crowds of Your Loyal Subjects, in all Humility, to approach Your Royal Throne with our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the glorious Success of Your Majesty's Arms, under the wise and valiant Conduct of the brave and victorious Duke of Marlborough, who, by his great Actions this Campaign, hath expos'd the Insolence and Vanity of the French Nation. We humbly beg Leave likewise to Congratulate Your Majesty, and his Royal Highness our Lord High Admiral, in the great Success of Your Majesty's Fleet, under the vigilant Command of Sir George Rooke; not doubting, but by the Courage, and Bravery of the English Seamen, the Designs of the Enemy at Sea are defeated.

These are, Madam, peculiar Blessings and Rewards of Heaven for Your Exemplary Piety, Virtue and Zeal, for the Common Cause.

May Your Majesty speedily and successfully finish the great Work so gloriously begun, and in due time restore the Ballance of Europe: And that Your Majesty may always remain the Support of Your Allies, and the Terror of Your Enemies, the Preserver of Your Peoples Liberty, and the true Defender of the Faith, by Supporting the Church of England as by Law Established, against all its Enemies and Opposers whatsoever; are and shall be the devout Prayers of Your Majesty's most Obedient and Loyal Subjects.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of our Borough, this Fourth Day of November, Anno Domini 1704. And in the Third Year of Your Majesty's Reign, &c.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of New Malton in the County of York, was presented to Her Majesty by William Palmes Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament of the said Borough; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bayliff, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of New Malton in the County of York, do in all Humility beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the late Glorious Success of Your own Forces, and those of Your Allies, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; who, by his Wisdom and Courage, has done more in one Summer's Expedition, for Supporting the Tottering State of the German Empire, than France has done in many Years to Distress it; and has shewn that haughty Monarch, what an English Army, Commanded by an English General, under the Influence of a Sovereign so truly affected to the Honour and Interest of England, can do.

May God Almighty bless Your Majesty with the Continuance of such Glorious Atchievements by Land, and Encrease of those at Sea; and that Your Councils may be Prosperous, and Your Arms Victorious, till You have reduced that great Invader of the Liberties of Europe to such a Level with his Neighbours, as that he may be no longer in Condition to Dispose of Crowns and Kingdoms at his Will and Pleasure, but rest contented to receive his own from Your Victorious Hand, upon such Terms as Your great Wisdom shall think fit, for Settling the Peace of Europe upon a firm and lasting Foundation.

And as Your Zeal for Supporting the Protestant Religion, as well in Foreign Parts as here at home, is the most shining Jewel in Your Crown; may that continue still to warm Your Royal Heart with that affectionate Care for the Encrease of it, as may render Your Sacred Person to all Posterity the true Defender of the Faith, and Your Reign the Wonder of the World.

The following Address from the City of Worcester was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Wylde Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens, of the City of Worcester, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on the happy Success of Your Forces in Germany, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; by which the State of the Empire, which was in so great Danger, has been rescued out of the Hands of the Common Enemy, and the Glory of the English Arms carried further than has been known in many Ages. By this the World may be convinced, That Your Arms are employed to preserve the Ballance of Europe; and that Your Forces are sent abroad not for the enlarging Your own Empire, but for Supporting that of Your Allies.

This most remarkable and glorious Victory, as it at present fills our Hearts with Joy, so it gives us just Grounds to hope, that we may see our Deliverance compleatly finished in Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, which was begun and carried on by Your Royal Predecessor.

May the Divine Providence continue so to prosper Your Majesty's Arms, that You may obtain for us a firm and a lasting Peace. And may Your Majesty long govern these Nations in Plenty and Prosperity, that You may both make us an happy People in Your own time, and secure to us the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties in a Protestant Succession.

Witness our Common Seal this Sixth Day of November, in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of GOD, over England, &c. Queen, Anno Domini 1704.

The following Address from the Borough of Helstone was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Francis Godolphin and Sydney Godolphin Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's Antient Borough of Helstone in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg leave to Assure Your Majesty, That we do, with Hearts as full of Loyalty as Duty, Congratulate Your Majesty upon the late Glorious Victory obtained by the Arms of Your Majesty, under the unparallel'd Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, over a powerful Army of French and Bavarians in Germany; which doth evidently shew, That Your Majesty is the only Power on Earth from whom Injured Princes can hope for a Redress of their Wrongs; and plainly inform Europe, that Your Sacred Person is Her Ballance, and the Preserver of Her Peace and Tranquillity.

We cannot but take hold of this welcome Opportunity, to assure Your Majesty of our earnest Supplications to Almighty God, That his Blessings may always attend Your Sacred Person; That Your Majesty's Arms, in all their Undertakings and Enterprizes, may have the like Successes; and that Your Reign over us may be long and prosperous; are, and shall be, the hearty Prayers of, Dread Sovereign, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Dated at the Guildhall of the said Borough the 13th day of October, Anno Dom. 1704.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very Graciously.

Vienna, Novemb. 12. The Negotiation with the Malecontents in Hungary having proved unsuccessful, Mr. Stepney, Her Majesty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary, and Monsieur Bruyninx, who has the same Character from the States-General, are returned hither from Schemnitz, the Place of Treaty, where they have been to contribute their good Offices towards bringing Matters to an Accommodation. Prince Ragotzi, the Chief of the Malecontents, set down before the Town of Newhausel the Seventh Instant with an Army of 20000 Men. General Herbeville is drawing together the Imperial Troops under his Command near Presbourg, in order to oppose the Malecontents, and three Regiments of Cuirassiers are marching from Bavaria to reinforce him. Letters from Transylvania, of the 24th of September, say, That General Rabutin had on the 11th obtained a considerable Advantage over a Body of the Malecontents near Hermanstadt, and had afterwards Relieved Devan, a considerable Fortress, that had been block'd up by them about Seven Months, and was reduced to great Streights. On the Twenty ninth past, Count Straatman, the Emperor's Envoy to the King of Poland, who had been here some time upon his own private Affairs, set out for Breslaw in order to proceed from thence to that King's Court. The same day the Bishop of Augsbourg, Brother to the Empress, arrived here from Judenbourg in Carinthia, where he has Resided with the Electoress Palatine his Mother ever since they left Inspruck, upon the Irruption which the Bavarians made the last Year into Tyrol,

From the Camp at Croon-Weissenbourg, Nov. 10. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough having given the necessary Directions for Attacking Traerbach, set out from Berncastel the 4th Instant early in the Morning, and came that Night to Kern, the next Day to Keyserslauteren, and the 6th at Night to the Camp before Landau, where he found the Besiegers entirely Masters of the Counterscarp, on which they had raised some Batteries, and more being perfected the next Day, they have now about 60 Pieces of Canon firing to make a Breach, which they have already done on the Face of the Counterguard on the Right; and the Miners continue the Sappe under the Covered-way, both on the Right and Left, to make Passages into the Ditch, for the filling of which a great part of the Materials is already provided, and the rest are expected to Morrow. The 8th his Grace returned hither. The Enemy having sent all their Horse of the Houshold from the Camp at Haguenau, in order, as they give out, to put them into Winter-Quarters, his Grace intends that the English Horse shall march from hence very speedily towards Holland, and that the Foot shall em bark in order to return thither as ſoon as we are Maſters of the Counterguard at Landau. A Deſerter, who came this Morning from thence, ſays, that the Gariſon has ſuffered very much.

Francfort, Nov. 16. The Duke of Marlborough arrived here laſt night from his Camp at Weiſſenbourg; The Magiſtrates offered to ſalute him with a Diſcharge of their Cannon, and to pay him all the other Honours due to his Rank and Quality; but his Grace was pleaſed to decline all manner of Ceremony, to purſue his Journey with more Diligence, and ſet out early this Morning towards Caſſel, intending to proceed from thence to the Courts of Pruſſia and Hanover. Letters from the Camp before Landau give Account, That on the 11th Inſtant they raiſed a new Battery on the Counterſcarp of 4 Pieces of Cannon; the 12th they raiſed two Batteries more of two Pieces of Cannon each, and one of two Mortars; the 13th they began to fill up the Ditch, which Work was continued the next day; and they carried on a Gallery to the Right ſide of the Half-moon, and were making the other neceſſary Preparations in order to lodge themſelves upon it.

Francfort, Novemb. 19. The Treaty of Accommodation between the Emperor and the Electoreſs of Bavaria was concluded the 10th Inſtant, by the King of the Romans and the Deputies of Her Electoral Highneſs, who is to ſurrender all the Towns in her Poſſeſſion to His Imperial Majeſty; to continue at Munich with a Guard of 400 Men, the new Fortifications of that Place being razed; and to have an Yearly Penſion allowed her. The Confederate Forces which were in and about Triers, marched from thence the Seventh towards Saarburg, which Place ſurrendred to them the next Day at Diſcretion; the Gariſon, to the Number of 350 Men, remaining Priſoners of War. The Siege of Traerbach goes on with very good Succeſs. Our laſt Advices from the Camp before Landau are of the 17th, and give an Account, That they had the day before poſſeſſed themſelves of the Half-Moon with inconſiderable loſs, and had a very fair Proſpect of being ſoon entirely Maſters of the Place. The Deputies of the Electoral Circle of the Rhine, who are aſſembled here, have lately publiſh'd a very ſtrict Order againſt the ſending of Horſes out of theſe Parts into the French Dominions.

Triers, Nov. 17. The Body of French Forces, which was lately drawn together in theſe Parts, and lay near Coningsmacheren, is marched to Nederholtz, below Diedenhoven, in order to ſeparate and go into Winter Quarters: The Troops of the French King's Houſhold, which were in Alſace, are come to Metz, in order to their being likewiſe put in o Quarters. On the 10th Inſtant a Detachment out of the Gariſon of Fribourg endeavour'd to ſurpriſe Old Briſac; for which purpoſe part of them were advanced thither diſguiſed in Habits like Peaſants, and others concealed in Carts under ſome Hay, which they pretended to carry into the Town for the uſe of the Gariſon; and they had already made themſelves Maſters of one of the Gates; but the reſt of their Body not coming timely to their Aſſiſtance, they were obliged to retire, which they did with inconſiderable Loſs. The Trenches before Traerbach are to be opened to morrow; and all the Batteries will be ready to fire at the ſame time.

Hambourg, November 21. Letters from Poland give an Account, That upon the Approach of the Swediſh Army, King Auguſtus marched from Pultowsk towards Cracow, with all his Horſe and part of his Foot, having given Orders to the reſt, being about 4000 in Number, commanded by Lieutenant-General Schuylemberg, to return into Saxony, and take their Winter-Quarters there; but the King of Sweden having paſſed the Weiſſel with a conſiderable Detachment of Horſe, purſued Lieutenant-General Schuylemberg, and having overtaken his Rear near Unienou, they had a ſharp Diſpute, which was renewed the next Day near Pauniz: After the Battle, the Saxons purſued their March towards Sileſia, and paſſed over the Oder without any farther Interruption. The Saxon and Muſcovite Forces which lay before Poſen raiſed the Siege of that Place the 7th inſtant, in order to join the King of Poland in his March towards Cracow. They write from Lithuania, That the Forces in that Dutchy, Commanded by Oginski, having been reinforced by a conſiderable Body of Muſcovites, did afterwards attack thoſe under General Sapieha, and gave them a conſiderable Defeat. An Edict has lately been iſſued by the King of Pruſſia, forbidding all his Subjects, under ſevere Penalties, to ſell any Horſes to the French.

Paris, Novemb. 23. The Count de Thoulouſe arrived the 10th inſtant at Marly from Thoulon. Our freſheſt Advices from the Duke of Vendoſme's Camp before Verue are of the 6th inſtant, and give an Account of his having that day poſſeſſed himſelf of the Fort of Guerbignan, and that the Duke of Savoy's Infantry, which lay near that Place, was returned to his Royal Highneſs's Camp at Creſcentino. The Grand Prior, with the Body of Forces under his Command, decamped the 28th paſt from Medoli, and poſted himſelf at Montechiaro, where he was on the 5th inſtant obſerving the German Troops under Count Leiningen, which continued in the ſame Camp near Salo, by the Lake di Garda, expecting further Reinforcements.

Hague, November 25. N. S. The Enemy having ſent their Forces in the Netherlands into Winter-Quarters, Orders were ſent laſt Week to Monſieur d'Auverquerque to ſeparate the Army of the States-General under his Command, and ſend them into Quarters; which he accordingly began to do on the 22d Inſtant, and he is expected here in few Days. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough paſſed by Caſſel the 17th, in his way to Berlin, where he intended to be the 23th, and after a ſhort ſtay at that Court, to proceed to Hanover, from whence he is expected here in a Fortnight. Our freſheſt Advices from the Camp before Landau, ſay, it was firmly believed that the Gariſon would Capitulate as laſt Week; ſo that we are in hourly Expectation of the News of its Surrender; as we are alſo of an Account of the Taking of Traerbach; our Letters from Coblentz, of the 20th, ſaying, That the Batteries againſt that Place had begun to play with ſo good Succeſs, that it was thought that Garriſon could not hold out longer than the 22th. A Convoy of ſeveral Yachts and Men of War from England came into the Maeſe the 14th Inſtant, on board which came Vice-Admiral Mitchell, who arrived here the next Day, being ſent by Her Majeſty of Great Britain to confer with the Deputies of the States-General, in order to ſettle divers Matters relating to the Service at Sea for the next Year.

Whitehaven, Nov. 12. Seven or Eight of our Merchant-men, which have been made uſe of as Tranſport-Ships in the Portugal Service, came in here this week from Dublin; as did alſo this morning a light Collier from thence: Here are now above 60 Sail in our Harbour.

Plimouth, Nov. 14. This day came in here Her Majeſty's Ship the Chatham from Cruizing, which brings Advice, That on the 12th Inſtant Her Majeſty's Ship the Elizabeth was taken in their ſight 20 Leagues to the Weſtward of Scilly by 4 French Men of War, which are ſuppoſed to be part of the Count de St. Paul's Squadron, lately come out of Breſt.

Portſmouth, Nov. 16. Yeſterday morning arrived at Spithead Her Majeſty's Ships the Rupert and Expedition, with two Prizes, one laden with Fiſh, and the other with Canary.

Yarmouth, Nov. 17. Yeſterday came into our Road ſeveral Merchant Ships from Rotterdam, belonging to this Port.
